

DRUNKEN SAILOR SPICE BLENDS

TAKE HOME THE MOST POPULAR TASTE OF NOVA SCOTIA

High-quality spice blends based on Nova Scotian tradition, sold in eco-friendly packaging.

Why Drunken Sailor? Well, sailors are savvy, they know a good meal, a good sea shanty and if they're from Nova Scotia, they know their way around a kitchen.

Drunken Sailor spices are delicious seasoning mixes that embrace Maritime traditional dishes, making them accessible to all. Our spices are easy to incorporate into recipes, even for novice cooks, yet complex enough to keep traditionalists and foodies coming back for more.

With a growing collection of seasonings, there is something for everyone, from our Maritime Tradition Donair Spice to our Friday Night Tradition Your Fadder's Steak Spice, which will elevate that T-bone to a firm family favourite.

Our Kraft bags are an eco-friendly packaging solution. They are made of 50gsm Kraft paper with a PLA (Polylactic Acid) interior lining created from plant-based film and are 100% certified compostable.
